

Data specification

Tube clip Squeeze® T120

The tube clip Squeeze® of DD-Compound is the solution for adjusting the resin flow and disconnecting resin- and vacuum lines. The tube clip will convince by the easy use and exact dosing of the resin flow. Squeeze® allows disconnecting the resin feed line without much force. The tube clip is suitable for different kind of tubes with an outer diameter up to 15mm. Because of the solid construction, Squeeze® is suitable for the everyday, industrial use.

- Applicable resin: Epoxy resin, Polyester resin
- Outer diameter of the resin feed line: up to 15mm
- Maximum operation temperature: 120°C
- Material:
 - o Guiding: Stainless steel
 - o Hand wheel: Aluminum
 - o Screws and bolts: Steel
 - o Sleeve: Polyoxymethylen (Pom)
- Manufacture: customized

These instructions are provided to the best of our knowledge and comply with our current levels of awareness. However, please note that these instructions are not binding.